

Volunteering Opportunities at APF

Anglican Communion's Movement for Peace

Called to follow Jesus and become Peacemakers

Would you like to join a group of Anglicans bringing peace issues to the forefront of church life?

Do you want to gain experience and support a worthwhile cause?

These are our current UK based volunteer opportunities. Location and experience are not an obstacle; do please get in touch if you would like to find out more.

APF Treasurer

APF needs a new treasurer to start in October or earlier.

The role of treasurer is important but not onerous. You would be joining a group of trustees, supporting the running of APF.

You do not have to be an accountant. Just good with figures an eye for detail and use a computer.

A paid administrator will be alongside doing the work of Bookkeeper and Gift Aid secretary.

It does not take long, on average 5 hours per month or 1.5 hours/week with a few meetings during the year.

The existing treasurer will help you into the role and provide continuing support.

For further details contact Roger Payne, retiring treasurer, 01844 351959/07711 394084, treasurer@anglicanpeacemaker.org.uk

Digital Media Administrator

A volunteer to refresh, add and improve the Website, Facebook and Twitter accounts.

Typical jobs are news and events additions, backup, website updates, domains renewal and spam removals, software updates.

Monthly commitment is sometimes variable but generally about 4 hours a month.

We can help you into the role, give training as needed and provide continuing support.

For further details contact Tilly Martin, Coordinator, 07494 272595, tilly@apf.org.uk